II. Paper Submission

首届世界中医药人工智能大会

The 1st World Congress on Artificial Intelligence in TCM

1. Submission Requirements

- (1) The deadline for paper submission is June 1, 2026. To submit, please log in to the “Paper” section of the [Conference Registration System] to upload your abstract and full text. Submissions through any other channels will be invalid. The acceptance results will be displayed on your personal page within the registration system.
- (2) The information and academic achievements reflected in the paper must be from the last 5 years. In principle, each participant is limited to submitting one paper. Please ensure the paper does not involve confidential information. Authors are responsible for ensuring the authenticity and objectivity of the content and bear full responsibility for the paper.
- (3) Papers must include both Chinese and English abstracts (Chinese abstract not exceeding 300 words). The full text (excluding references) must not exceed 3000 words. Use Songti font for Chinese text and Times New Roman for English text.
- (4) The paper abstracts will be compiled into the conference proceedings and will not be indexed in major databases.

2. Inclusion Requirements

- (1) All conference participants are eligible to submit papers. All submissions will be reviewed by an academic expert panel. Qualified papers will be included in the conference abstract compilation. Acceptance results will be displayed in the personal section of the registration system.
- (2) If you require a formal paper acceptance notification, you may download it directly from the registration system after your paper has been reviewed and accepted.
- (3) If you wish to give an oral presentation, please apply through the “Presentation” section of the [Conference Registration System]. Applications will be reviewed by the academic expert panel, and selected candidates will be recommended as speakers. An accepted paper is mandatory for oral presentations, and the presentation content must align with the paper. The venue and schedule for presentations will be arranged by the conference organizing committee based on the overall agenda.
