

Announcement of Calligraphy, Painting and Photography Competition of Chinese Medicine on Celebrating the 10th Anniversary of World Federation of Chinese Medicine Societies

Member societies, specialty committees, president, vice-president, executive member of the presidiums, executive council members and council members:

Approved by WFCMS 3rd session of 3rd council Board, a competition of Calligraphy, Painting and Photography of Chinese medicine will be held to celebrate the 10th Anniversary of World Federation of Chinese Medicine Societies. In order to make sure the competition go well and push forward the development of Chinese medicine worldwide, it is hoped that member societies and related people could participate in this competition. Following points need to be noticed:

1. The Content of the Activity

(1) Eligibility

The practitioners and enthusiasts of Chinese medicine worldwide are eligible.

(2) Requirements

① Originality

Works must be original and the competitors have the independent copyright.

② Forms

A Calligraphy: limited to brush calligraphy

B Painting: traditional Chinese realistic painting, brush painting and oil painting are all included.

C Photography: both chromophotograph and black-and-white photograph can be used. The format of electronic edition should be “jpg”, and its size is between 3M and 10M.

③ Contents

A Calligraphy and Painting

- Reflection of medical treatment and health care of Chinese medicine
- Reflection of the classical allusion and anecdote of Chinese medicine
- Reflection of the modern achievement of Chinese medicine
- The entries should be created with Chinese traditional skills

B Calligraphy of CM Prescription

The classic CM Prescription should be made with writing brush, including the name of Prescription, dosage of every herb and dosage of Prescription, the decoction methods and signature.

Material: Use Chinese rice paper only

Size: A3; longitudinal direction

C Photography

The content of photograph includes celebrities, activities, building, goods, events, environment, culture and news of Chinese medicine worldwide. The photographs must be original and true, and those photographs which are made up through digital processing are not acceptable.

(3) Application for competition

① The entries of calligraphy and painting can be submitted to the organizing committee (general office of World Federation of Chinese Medicine Societies )directly or through post.

② The title, brief illustration or detailed illustration, the specific time and location of photograph should be supplied .If a series of pictures are submitted, it is necessary to number them. Please submit 10-cun mounted photo to the organizing committee first.

③ All member societies and specialty committees can be responsible for collecting several entries for the competition.

④ Please reserve the manuscript, photographic plate or original digital document of calligraphy, painting and photograph. The entries will not be returned once they are submitted to the organizing committee. If the entries win the prize, their photographic plate or original digital document of should be submitted to the organizing committee for the examination and then returned to authors.

⑤ The authorship of every entry is owned by author himself, but the office will have the right of publishing, copying, spreading through networks, filming, translating and compiling the entries, etc.

(4) Important date

Deadline for submission: All entries have to be submitted before July 30th, 2013. (The date of submission according to the local postmark should be before the deadline). The appraisal will be finished on August 30th, 2013, and the list of winners will be published on the official website of World Federation of Chinese Medicine Societies.

2. Prize

The calligraphy, painting and photography competition of Chinese medicine on celebrating the 10th anniversary of World Federation of Chinese Medicine Societies: The winners will receive certificates. The prizes are classified as follows:

- (1) 4 entries for the first prize including 1 for Calligraphy, 1 for Painting, 1 for Calligraphy of CM Prescription and 1 for Photography.
- (2) 8 entries for the second prize including 2 for Calligraphy, 2 for Painting, 2 for Calligraphy of CM Prescription and 2 for Photography.
- (3) 12 entries for the third prize including 3 for Calligraphy, 3 for Painting, 3 for Calligraphy of CM Prescription and 3 for Photography.
- (4) 30 entries for honorable mention (not classified)

3. Contact

(1) The organizing committee of the competition is set up in the Secretariat of World Federation of Chinese Medicine Societies. Please send entries with the indication of “entries for competition” to the Secretariat of World Federation of Chinese Medicine Societies.

(2) Address : Room 505, Building A, Wealth Garden, No.19 Xiao Ying Street, Chaoyang District, Beijing, P.R China.

Post code: 100101

Liaison officers: Wang Lu, Yang Shuning

Tel: 58650036/58239006

Fax: 58650041

E-mail: wfcms.zhbgs@gmail.com